GOVERNMENT ORDERS TROOPS TO PREPARE FOR DUTY TO PROTECT SOUTHERN RAIL PROPERTY

Strike Orders Sent To C. & O. Clerks

RICHMOND, VA., July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—H. J. Osborn, general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, announced today that strike orders were being sent to the seventeen lodges on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. He said the walk-out probably would not become effective "for several days."

Mr. Osborn's announcement followed collapse of negotiations between railroad and brotherhood representatives and issuance of a statement by W. J. Harahan, president of the company, declaring a strike by the clerks would violate their signed agreement.

Fleet Of Motor Vehicles Available For Mails

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Postmaster General Work today prepared a letter to President Harding notifying the executive that a survey prepared by all departments of the government showed that a thoroughly organized fleet of 50,000 motor vehicles could be mobilized within 24 hours, should the railway shopmen's strike further interfere with the movement of United States mail.

The results of the survey were forwarded to the president as a matter of information, but there was no official indication that use of motor trucks to carry mail was being seriously considered. The prevailing belief in Washington was that, should the president's warning against interference with the mails be disregarded, stronger measures were contemplated.

The post office department controls about 10,000 motor trucks and Postmaster General Work was advised today that there were more than 40,000 motor vehicles owned and controlled by the various states, while thousands of others owned by the war department and used by the national guard in different states, were available.

The postmaster general planned to notify the president that this vast fleet of motor trucks could be set at work transporting the mails at short notice and that the governors of the different states would be asked to arrange matters so that every state owned machine and government vehicles would be placed at the command of the postal authorities in the respective states. So completely have arrangements been perfected, they said, that the strike no longer can cause annoyance so far as mail movements are concerned.

Seeks To Recover

Oil Well Title

LEXINGTON, KY., July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Suit has been filed in federal court here by W. N. Cope, attorney for Lillie G. Wells, of Lee county, and others against W. H. Fitzgerald, of Columbus, and others in which the plaintiff seeks to recover $50,000 in cash and complete title to an oil royalty worth approximately $100,000. The plaintiff claims the royalty was secured through representation that the oil well in question was a salt water well.

Princess Margherita, Massimo of Italy will wed Count Emilio Pagliaro, Italian diplomat, in Spain in August. The wedding will be one of the European season's most brilliant social affairs.

Coal Strike Situation Disturbing To Government

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Although the anthracite operators have submitted what President Harding is said to regard as a complete acceptance of the government's offer of arbitration in the coal strike, the situation with regard to the bituminous operators and the miners' union continued under a cloud of uncertainty today with both sides pursuing a policy obviously disturbing to administration officials.

The anthracite operators attached two conditions to their acceptance of arbitration, one that a separate commission consider wage scales in that industry and the other that the commission be required to submit a decision by August 10, agreeing in the meantime to pay the wage rate of March 31 as suggested in the president's proposal.

MAJOR STEELE DIES

MARIION, INDIANA, July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Major George W. Steele, who served sixteen years in congress as representative from the eleventh Indiana district, and following his retirement from congress was governor of the national military home here, died last night after an illness of several weeks.

Outbreaks In Strike Zones; More Trains Curtailed

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Secretary Weeks today instructed Major General John L. Hines, commanding the 8th army corps area at San Antonio, Texas, to prepare a sufficient force of troops to protect the properties of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas lines, which are in the hands of receivers appointed by the United States court.

The secretary acted after receiving an appeal from C. E. Schaff, the receiver of the line, for protection. Mr. Schaff declared that the state protection was only partial and that many of the employees of the road had been beaten up and commerce was being interfered with by the strikers. United States marshals were unable to cope with the situation, the receiver said.

In reply to Mr. Schaff, Secretary Weeks suggested that he should demand protection from the governor of Texas and promised if that was not forthcoming, the federal government would take such action as was necessary to afford protection.

Strike Developments

(By The Associated Press)
Government contemplates sending troops to disturbed areas of railroad strike.

President Jewell, of the shopmen, telegraphed appeal to President Harding, stating that the executive's proclamation of July 11, was based on "incomplete information."

Postmaster General Work informed President Harding that 50,000 motor vehicles could be mobilized within 24 hours to move the mails.

Railway and union officials and rail labor board members apparently suspended peace activities temporarily.

It was announced that strike orders are being sent out to the clerks on the Chesapeake and Ohio.

Two alleged strike-breakers seized by a band at Denison, Texas, lectured and told to leave the state.

Baltimore and Ohio annulled eight passenger trains between Chicago and the east.

Several strike-breakers and guards injured and four missing after a raid on a round house at Oroville, California.

Rail Executives Halt Strike Settlement

CHICAGO, July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Although moves for peace in the rail strike apparently were slowed up somewhat today, the general trend still seemed to be toward negotiations for a settlement, despite the flat refusal of railroad executives to enter a peace parley with B. M. Jewell, head of the striking shopmen.

One of the most optimistic notes was sounded by Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the railroad labor board, who having fostered the rejected conference, announced that he had formulated new plans for ending the walk-out.

Chairman Hooper, of the board, was in private conference with railroad presidents again today, however, following the flat refusal of a committee from the carriers yesterday to talk to the strikers so long as they remain away from the shops. Mr. Hooper declined to discuss his plans, and B. M. Jewell, president of the shopmen, still maintained a hopeful attitude.

The strike leader declared he believed the roads would soon relent and get down to business with the strikers' representatives. A telegram to President Harding, signed by President Jewell and the six international shop unions, now in strike, sought to summarize the shop workers' grievances and was sent in reply to the White House proclamation issued Tuesday.

The telegram said the strike was based on the "unjust" low wages fixed by the board "in violation of the transportation act," and against the alleged refusal of 94 roads to obey labor board orders in 1914 cases.

One remaining hope in the peace parley move, Mr. Hooper declared lay in the fact that railroad chiefs who rejected the proposed conference were not authorized to speak for railway executives generally.

The thirteenth day of the shopmen's strike thus held considerable promise of important developments.

Outbreaks Continue
Meanwhile, the short lull in which acts of violence diminished somewhat was followed by renewed outbreaks in California, Texas and Michigan.

At Bloomington, Illinois, state troops withdrew from the Chicago and Alton yards and confined themselves to the shops.

As a result Alton trainmen who refused to handle trains within the military controlled yards, yielded in their attitude and service on the Alton through Bloomington showed signs of improvement.

At Denison, Texas, E. L. Cox, of Wichita Falls, an electrician, was taken from a Missouri, Kansas and Texas train by a band of men and beaten badly. Cox, employed as a strike-breaker in the Katy shops, had been warned by union men to leave town.

Danger of Strike Spreading Averted
Previous threats of the strike spreading to the train service employees apparently was averted by the conference of "big four" brotherhood chiefs here, and the New York Central apparently had prevented a strike of clerks on its lines.

Saginaw, Michigan, was the scene of disturbances on the Pere Marquette and Governor Greenback was asked for troops to prevent further trouble.

Strikers were active on the picket lines in the Collinwood yards of the

JEWELL REPLIES TO PRESIDENT; OPENS NEW PHASE OF GRIEVANCES

Union Officials Opposed To Violence In Strike

CHICAGO, July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—B. M. Jewell, head of the railway department of the American Federation of Labor, today sent a telegram to President Harding, replying to the president's proclamation on the strike situation and opening a new phase of the grievances of striking railway shopmen.

The telegram, which also was signed by the six international presidents of the railway shop crafts, declared that the strikers had walked out because wages fixed by the labor board were in violation of the provisions of the transportation act and because of the violation of the labor board's decision by the railroads.

The strikers insisted that no interruption of commerce or interference with the mails had been caused by an unlawful act by the shopmen. The telegram laid such interference directly to the attempt of the railroads to operate with incompetent workmen.

President Jewell and his associates reiterated their desire to co-operate in any effort to bring peace, but declared that up to the present the rail executives had refused to meet the representatives of the employees.

The text follows:
"It appears from your proclamation of July 11 that incomplete information has been furnished you concerning the present dispute between the railroad operators and employees.

"Ninety-two railroads have violated transportation act or decisions of the railroad labor board and 104 cases. These involved not only contracting out work in shops, but also wage decreases. Interpretations of rules and right of employees to elect their own representatives. When the Pennsylvania railroad refused to comply with the board's rulings, Federal Judge Page held that the board's position on wages or rules was only advisory. The railroads have refused ever since passage of the transportation act to establish national boards of adjustment described by the labor board as the central part of the machinery to decide disputes between the carriers and their employees.

EIGHT CHILDREN KILLED WHEN SOUVENIR GUN SHELL EXPLODES

WATERTON, N. Y., July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Police are searching this city for artillery shells retained as souvenirs of the world war, after the explosion of a three-inch shell resulting in the death of eight children. The shell, believed to be a "dud," was used as a screen door check on the rear porch of the Edward G. Workman house. The intense heat, according to Madison Barrecks military officials, made the shell liable to explosion at reduced concussion, and it is believed that one of the children playing croquet, struck the shell with a mallet or ball.

Fragments of clothing and flesh were scattered from trees and house tops for yards around and two automobiles were placed near the shell on the rear porch were found on a roof 200 feet away.

Deadlock In Russian Peace Parley
LONDON, July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Prime Minister Lloyd George told the house of commons this afternoon he was afraid a deadlock had occurred at The Hague, but he had no information that there had been a breakdown of the conference on Russian affairs.

THE HAGUE, July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—The non-Russian sub-commission on private property of the conference on Russian affairs, unanimously adopted today a resolution declaring that in the light of the views expressed yesterday by the Russians concerning the restitution of foreigners' property in Russia it would "serve no useful purpose to continue the meetings with the Russian commission."

THE HAGUE, July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Actual dissolution of The Hague conference on Russian affairs probably can not take place before tomorrow. Experts representing the countries which have tried to reach an agreement with the Soviets are holding meetings for the discussion of their final stand on the question of foreign owned property in Russia confiscated by the Soviets.

Statement About Strike Issued By N. & W.

Following is a statement for the Norfolk and Western Railway Company upon the present strike:

ROANOKE, VA., July 12.—Some of our shop employees and some of our clerical forces have inaugurated a strike, commencing July 1st. This public and our employees are entitled to a brief statement of the background of this present strike and of the position of the Company.

There were two ballots, both dated June 8th, 1922, upon which the six shop crafts in Section No. 2 of the Railway Employees' Department of the American Federation of Labor voted. These two ballots were upon "accepting piece work, as well as conceding to railroad management the right to contract their car and locomotive shops to contractors, thus depriving the employees of their seniority rights, past privileges, rates of pay, and working conditions established by negotiations and agreements made by and for the United States Railroad Labor Board" and "against accepting the wage reduction ordered by the United States Railroad Labor Board," effective July 1st, 1922.

Inasmuch as this Company does not have piecework in its shops at the present time and has not contracted out any of its car and locomotive shops to contractors, any employees who voted for a strike on these issues presented in the ballots were voting upon issues not open in the service of this Company. So far as this Company is concerned, the single issue is obedience or disobedience of the Labor Board's decisions, effective July 1st, 1922.

The Labor Board is the governmental agency to hear and adjust disputes which threaten an interruption of the public transportation, as to wages, working conditions, rules and similar grievances. The Board was established by the Transportation Act approved by President Wilson, February 28th, 1920.

Immediately after the Act was passed the Labor Board ordered an advance of wages aggregating for all the carriers of the country $350,000, 600 per annum in addition to advances during the War, effective May 1st, 1920.

By the end of the year 1920 business had decreased, and the carriers could not continue to pay these scales of wages without imposing upon the public a scale of transportation rates out of relation to business conditions. Then the carriers appealed to the Labor Board, which heard the several disputes and made reductions of wages (previous to the present decision) aggregating $378,000,000 a year for all the carriers.

Under the decision July 1st, 1922, the minimum rates per hour for shop crafts are 70 cents for all except Freight Carmen, who will receive 63 cents; as compared with going rates per hour for the same crafts in 1916 from 36 to 42 cents and in 1917 from 34 1/2 to 50 1/2 cents. If minimum rates in those years were taken the spread will be still greater.

The Chairman of the Labor Board, in a letter dated June 20th, 1922, stated that the public would not treat these employees as "absolutely immune from the operation of the economic processes through which everybody must pass." The present decision, reducing the pay of the Shop Crafts and other employees in railroad service, after the determination of "just and reasonable" wages by the independent tribunal constituted for that purpose by Congress.

In the conduct of its business this Company will obey the decisions of the Labor Board, whether wages are increased or decreased.

N. D. MAHER,
President.

HAS CLOSE CALL IN A RUNAWAY

An exciting runaway occurred yesterday morning about 9 o'clock when a horse driven by Miss Edith Sommer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sommer, of Carey's Run, which when the shaft coupling of the buggy broke, the horse tore down Front street, crashing into a telephone pole just below Market street. Miss Sommer was driving west on Front street below Market when the shaft coupling broke and it was only her presence of mind that saved her from serious injuries when she turned the frightened horse into the sidewalk.

A man realizing the young lady's peril ran and grabbed the animal by the bridle and kept it from running farther. The buggy was badly damaged, one wheel and the front being completely demolished. Miss Sommer was not injured.

General Notice
ROANOKE, VA., July 12.—At the time of receiving pay checks July 15th, employees who have left the service on strike should turn in all passes issued by the Railway Company to themselves and their families as well as other Company property to the employees delivering pay checks.

Such passes cannot be legally used after July 15th, and those not turned in will be forfeited and lifted by conductors.

Part Of Maintenance Of Way Force On The N. & W. Join Shopmen Strike

Announcement that some of the maintenance of way men on the N. & W. between Portsmouth and Columbus had left their jobs and joined hands with the striking shopmen and clerks was the only thing new in the strike of the railroad employees today in this section.

Representatives of the shopmen visited Picketon this morning and found there that the maintenance of way men had left their jobs at that point, Waverly and Renick and other smaller places along the line. The shopmen's committee announced that twenty-one trackmen were out between Portsmouth and Columbus and claim that only about a half dozen maintenance of way men were working between Columbus and this city.

At the office of the N. & W. in East Portsmouth it was stated that maintenance of way men had left their posts today at Waverly, Omega and Higby.

The clerks' committee today stated that the clerks were out about 94 per cent, adding that several clerks had joined the ranks of the strikers since yesterday morning when a majority of the clerks left their desks. At the offices in East Portsmouth it was stated that the clerks not working included from 40 to 50 per cent of the normal force. Traffic was reported normal at the division offices of the N. & W.

LOCAL BANK AWARDED BONDS

County commissioners at a called meeting at 1 p. m. Thursday opened bids for the road improvement bonds, $117,000, which represents the county, township and property owners share of improving the Galia pike from Franklin Furnace to the Lawrence county line.

On their bid of $2,438, unconditional, the Central National Bank of this city was awarded the bonds. This bank submitted the only unconditional bid.

Other bidders were Security Bank of this city, $2,064, conditional; Portsmouth Banking Co., $287, conditional; Title Guarantee and Trust company of Cincinnati, $2,538, conditional; Ryan and Bowman company of Toledo, $1,225.50, conditional; Sidney-Spitzer & Company of Toledo, $2,422, conditional, and Seabrook and Mayer of Cincinnati, $2,360. W. L. Slayton & Company of Toledo bid $2,100.00, but their bid arrived too late to be considered.

Women Discuss Wet And Dry Fight

B. & O. Employees Get Last Pay

The Chillicothe Gazette Wednesday said: "The quiet in local rail circles was marked today. B. & O. shop craftsmen who walked out over a week ago, were handed their last pay envelopes Wednesday morning, but even the usual pay day activities were lacking. There were very few men in evidence about the streets in the East End during the early afternoon."

"According to advice at the N. & W. headquarters, no clerks walked out here in pursuance to the strike call issued on the N. & W. system for clerks, freight handlers and depot men."

"B. & O. officials say that no more strike breakers have been placed in the local shops during the last 24 hours, although union men say three more guards have been ordered."

"B. & O. clerks finished their strike balloting today."

Operators Insist On Need Of Troops In Perry County

COLEMAN, O., July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—"Just how far Governor Davis expects the crisis in Perry county to go before he deems protection is necessary is a question for which we are attempting to find an answer," was the declaration of Lewis P. Sater and Webb L. Vorys, attorneys for the Consolidated Coal and Coke Company, who yesterday again denied state troops to guard workmen employed in loading coal from a slack pile near New Straitsville.

"Newspapers have quoted Governor Davis as making a statement in Cleveland that he can not rely upon information given him by either side in the controversy, but only on that furnished him by his own representatives. In our attempts to get strike aid in preventing a recurrence of the July 4 attack, we have relied solely upon evidence obtained by the governor's own investigator, Colonel Chalmers R. Wilson, of the adjutant general's department, and that of Sheriff Minshull, who is also acting under the governor's direction. We can submit no more proof that state intervention is necessary than that furnished by these men who have been directed by Governor Davis to keep him informed as to the state of affairs at New Straitsville."

"We have stenographic copies of reports given by Sheriff Minshull in which he denies that he could swear in a force of 35 deputies to handle the situation and that the only solution is for the state to send troops to the scene at once. We also have Colonel Wilson's word that it will require a whole regiment of guardsmen to prevent another mob attack and a repetition of the Herrin, Illinois, massacre."

"It is a question as to how many men shall be killed in Perry county before the governor deems the situation critical enough to call out the troops," they concluded.

Charge Standard Oil Has Control Of Gasoline Market

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Assessing that a monopolistic situation with respect to the gasoline market existed over the entire country owing to the fact that interlocking stock ownership in the Standard Oil Company has perpetuated the very monopolistic control which the court sought to terminate, the federal trade commission recommended in a report to congress today the enactment of legislation prohibiting common stock ownership in corporations which have been members of a combination dissolved under the Sherman law.

"The commission is of the opinion that this situation can not be effectively remedied by existing law and that adequate relief can only be secured through additional legislation, which would prohibit common stock ownership in corporations which have been members of a combination dissolved under the Sherman law."

JUSTICE MUST BE DONE IN CASE OF THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR HERRIN MASSACRE

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 13.—Justice must be done in the case of those responsible for the recent massacre of coal miners at Herrin, Illinois, "regardless of affiliations," if the United States is to continue as a nation, Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, of the navy department, declared today in an address at the "Elks" national convention. A "blot" such as that at Herrin, he asserted, "can be wiped out in only one way—by process of law."

"We are in the midst of troublesome times," Mr. Roosevelt said. "And there are more ahead. There are happenings day after day which illustrate exactly what I mean."

"There are doctrines abroad in the land, which if not controverted and overcome, may lead to the fall of this great country as countries of the past have fallen."

"But a few short weeks ago, in southern Illinois, as atrocious a massacre occurred as is contained in our annals. Men were killed, not cleanly killed, but brutally killed, and up to the time in which I speak there is no shadow of a conviction for the murderers in sight. I know not who was to blame, whether employer or employee—perhaps both—but if our country is to stand, we must mete out justice in this case, regardless of the affiliations. Before the law the man with a million and the man with a dollar stand the same. The offender of great wealth must be brought to task for his iniquities and the offender of small wealth must be brought to task also."

"A blot of this kind on our reputation can be wiped out in one manner and one manner only, and that is by due process of law. If we are to exist as a nation, we must be law-abiding. On the law depends our society. Destroy law and the country reverts to barbarism over night. Destroy law and we will be back in the days of slavery, rapine and pillage, when the strong oppress the weak, when interest triumphs over honor. Without law our civilization crumbles."

"Illinois is but an instance, though a ghastly one, of our reckless disregard for our own laws, made by ourselves. If we love our country, if we believe in civilization, if we are solemn duty now, as never before, to throw our weight behind the law and the law enforcing bodies."

"Grave as this tendency toward law-breaking is, it is but one of the danger tendencies of the present. There is a doctrine abroad in the land which is just as destructive. This doctrine is that our function in life is to get by with as little work as possible."

"In order to meet this situation, we must reorganize, in many respects, our theory of business. We must endeavor to adjust it to the needs of this problem. We must work toward the condition of affairs whereby we may correctly attribute to those engaged in industry rather than to 'employers and employees' the work we must do, wherever possible, some type of partnership relationship. This may be profit-sharing, or some form of group work or something of like nature."

CARLOAD OF REAL BEER
AKRON, O., July 12.—(By the Associated Press)—Federal prohibition agents were guarding a carload of real beer here today.

Two Killed; Six Wounded

MONROE, Pa., July 13.—Two men were shot and killed and six other persons, including a girl, were injured in a shooting affray at Beat Swamp, Pa., near the New York state line early today.

The dead are Charles Wakeman, of Little Meadows, Pa., and Fred Tydoni, a foreign speaking farmer at whose house the shooting occurred.

Among the injured Sheriff Girtou M. Darrow, of Susquehanna county, who is in a hospital at Johnson City, N. Y., where Wakeman died. Tydoni was killed by Harry McElroy, a Pennsylvania policeman, after Tydoni had wounded him.

According to the best information received here, Tydoni is alleged to have operated a still on his farm and mistaking Wakeman for a prohibition officer, fired on him. Tydoni barricaded himself in the house and help was summoned from Monroe and Little Meadows, five miles away. In the shooting that followed the others were wounded and Tydoni killed.

Wakeman, accompanied by three children had called at the Tydoni farm to see Tydoni regarding a real estate deal.

When the sheriff, Chief of Police Tingley and the state trooper approached the house they were fired upon with a shot gun from the house and all were wounded. Later Constable M. P. Barnum and State Constable M. P. Barnum and State Constable M. P. Barnum tried to get into the house and also were wounded.

Such a motion if pressed would bring the first vote in the committee on the Ford proposal.

Cash Dividend Of 15 Per Cent By Ford
DETROIT, MICH., July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—A cash dividend of 15 per cent on its capitalization of $7,000,000, payable July 20 to stockholders of record, July 13, was announced today by the Ford Motor Company of Canada.

Plans for expansion recently were announced by the company when it acquired several hundred acres of land fronting on the Detroit river, and adjoining its original holdings. The purchase involved an outlay of $1,000,000.

Clerks Strike On New York Central Averted
NEW YORK, July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Details of the arrangement by which a strike of the clerks' union on the New York Central system apparently has been averted were being worked out at another conference of the union and railway officials. A tentative agreement has been reached by which it is understood the wage cut ordered by the railroad labor board will stand, but with the railroad making some concessions regarding vacation and sick leaves pay.

Practically all trains in the principal terminals were moving on schedule time, but it was reported by labor leaders that delays continued at freight yards and some passenger stations.

Protest Restriction
On Picketing
CINCINNATI, O., July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Committees from the Baltimore and Ohio and the Great Northern striking shopmen called on Mayor George T. Carroll, of the city hall today and protested against police interference with their pickets. They informed the mayor that their pickets at the Riverside shops had been ordered by the police to go home at 11 o'clock at night. They insisted that their pickets had a right to stay on picket duty all night, if they deemed it advisable to do so.

The committee of the Big Four shopmen also applied to the mayor for a permit to hold a street parade of striking shopmen of all the roads, probably next Wednesday. They said they desired to show the people of Cincinnati that they were law-abiding citizens.

Clerks Seek Injunction
Against Wage Slash
PHILADELPHIA, PA., July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—An effort to restrain the Pennsylvania railroad from putting into effect next Monday a new scale of reduced wages for its employees is being made in the United States district court by the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees. The press and station employees' brotherhood filed a bill in equity yesterday asking the court to declare the new scale of wages void "because it was arranged with a committee elected by the railroad, but supposed to be representing the employees."

Engineers, Firemen,
Conductors Threaten
To Quit The Trains
DENISON, TEXAS, July 13.—(By the Associated Press)—A joint meeting of engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen unions of Denison, has been called for this afternoon to consider discontinuing work on trains coming into Denison, it was announced this morning. The conference was called by union leaders, they said, as a result of reports that trains are being operated that are badly disabled and dangerous to workers and passengers.

Wholesale Challenges Are Issued By Portsmouth Horse Shoe Pitchers

Ironton, Ashland, Russell, Wheelersburg, Chillicothe, Waverly, Picketon,
Sciotoville, New Boston, Lucasville,
Jackson, Wellston, Otway, Hardin,
Harrisonville and Navvoo.

The horseshoe pitchers of Portsmouth are after foreign conquests. They have twice met and defeated Huntington, and hope to make it a tray when they meet them on Saturday. But they have no intention of stopping there. At the last meeting of the horseshoe pitchers, they voted to challenge 15 neighboring centers to horseshoe contests for the championship of this part of the country. The Portsmouth horseshoe pitchers are not sending these broadcast challenges because of any swell headedness on their part, but because they have been pitching each other for over a year now, and know pretty well just how they stand with each other in regard to skill, and now they want to measure themselves against the pitchers of other places.

A letter has been sent to the mayors of the 15 places challenged, inviting them to a horseshoe contest.

Horseshoe pitching is a game older than our country is. Every city and town has its devotees who pitch for the fun of it in the hours between supper and dark, and we in Portsmouth, are no exception to the rule, but have long enjoyed the game.

So the Portsmouth Horseshoe Pitching Association, wishing to get the many horseshoe pitchers of this part of Ohio more in touch with each other, hereby challenges the horseshoe pitchers of your city to a friendly match in horseshoe pitching, for the championship of southeastern Ohio. Four or six pitchers on a side. Our team will come to your city at some date convenient for you, and we can arrange a return match while there.

Sincerely yours,
EDW. S. GILFILLIAN,
Secretary Portsmouth Horseshoe Pitching Association.

Council Shapes Up New Jitney Ordinance

A called meeting of city council was held last night for the purpose of considering the proposed ordinance drawn to regulate motor bus and jitney traffic in Portsmouth.

It was proposed by the Portsmouth Street Railway and Light Company, it being the company's claim that many drivers of machines were plying their trade along the car lines only. It has been reported to council that the jitney cars carry passengers for five cents along the car line but advance their charge as much as a quarter when going off the car line. They also run their machines just at the rush hours and do not maintain any set schedules. As the fare on the street cars is regulated by the total number of passengers carried it is thought best to license and regulate the many jitney cars and buses in operation along the car lines. The ordinance as first presented last week did not meet with the approval of council as it was thought to be a hardship on the bus lines that enter the city only several times a day, and bring in buyers who have only this means of getting to the city.

Every section of the ordinance was carefully considered and discussed and was finally decided upon the changes to be made so the revised ordinance can be presented at the regular meeting of council next week.

The ordinance provides for a graded license fixed according to the number of passengers carried and also provides for the registration of machines and the licensing of the drivers. Owners of jitney machines or buses will also be required to post a bond to cover damages or accidents. The mayor to be the officers in charge of the work of issuing licenses while the Safety Department will see to it that the ordinance is enforced.

The ordinance as agreed upon does not affect taxicabs or motor buses carrying passengers from points outside the city into Portsmouth, or from Portsmouth to outside points, save to prohibit their stopping to take on passengers in the city from one urban point to another.

Another ordinance, providing for the regulation and license of taxicabs is being considered by the council. Members present last evening were President Weghorst, members Westphal, Diener, Bauer, Osborn, Horr, Tucker and Koutz. City Auditor Earl Chandler, Directors Gergens and Strauss and Solicitor Johnson and Mayor Waldman were other members of the official family present.

STORM CAUSES CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE

Considerable damage was left in the wake of the severe wind and rain storm, which swept the city Wednesday afternoon. Many signs and trees were blown down and the telephone and telegraph lines were hampered for several hours. The wind blew a veritable gale at times and the city was literally strewn with tree branches. In several instances they had to be removed from streets before traffic could be resumed.

One section of the roof of the N. and W. freight house on Gallia street was blown away and considerable damage entailed.

BREAKS GROUND FOR NEW JEWISH TEMPLE

Contractor Frank Carson broke ground Thursday for the new Jewish Temple, which will go up at Eighth and Gay street. It is expected that the beautiful Temple will be completed by next spring. A $50,000 building permit was taken out yesterday by trustees of the Jewish Temple.

IRONTON CLERKS OUT IN SYMPATHY

The Ironton Register Wednesday said:

"The Ironton clerks of the Norfolk & Western railway joined the system strike Wednesday, having taken a vote at a meeting of their local union Tuesday evening.

With the entire clerical force of the system idle the shipping facilities of the road are cut down and freight shipments of any length haul are not taken and many places they are refused altogether.

There are about twenty-five local N. & W. employees idle at this time. The local clerks made it plain that the strike call was issued by their system head, in protest against the recent cuts in wages, abolishment of vacation with pay and cancelling of other privileges of long standing.

He was sent to a hotel to spend the night and left for Huntington this morning.

Williams Killed At Jenkins, Ky.

Mrs. Malissa Pugh of Wheelersburg received a telegram Wednesday notifying her of the death of her son-in-law, Ben Williams, 57, who was killed yesterday at Jenkins, Ky., where he was employed as foreman in a coal mine. Mrs. C. P. Ward of 617 1-2 Chillicothe street, is a sister-in-law of the deceased. Mr. Pugh and Mrs. Ward left this morning for Jenkins, Ky., to attend the funeral. The local relatives believe that he was killed in a mine accident and not during labor trouble at the mine. The telegram was from Williams' brother-in-law and another son-in-law of Mrs. Pugh, Grover Hounshell, who also works at the mine. Mrs. Ben Williams was formerly Miss Lulu Pugh of Jackson, Ky., and she was married about eleven years ago to Williams at Jackson. Besides the wife, Williams leaves four children and three step-children.

Speaking Of Earrings

It requires no bell ringing to proclaim a gathering of fashionable women these days.

They do plenty of ear-ringing on their own account.

All styles, all shapes, but earrings always, everywhere.

There are no lengths to which earrings won't go to achieve smartness, nor breadth either; for the wide gypsy hoop styles are just as nonchalant as the Cleopatra drops of jet.

The new arrivals reveal splendid assortments and the prices run from 75c to $2.50.

Of course, during our July Clearance, they are offered at 20 per cent off, which would reduce the price to 60c to $2.00.

The twenty per cent discount is offered throughout the jewelry section and for that matter throughout the main floor.

In our second floor salon, the discounts run to half off, original prices.

This applies to every single department on the second floor.

One fifth to one half off throughout the store is the slogan at Kline's during the month of July.

"Put Your Dresses Down"

That is the instruction the buyer in the children's department gave. He meant to put the price on children's dresses clear down to the ground for Friday and Saturday. Consequently, we offer two large stocks of children's white dresses, colored voiles and gingham, in values to $4.00, choice 98c. Values to $8.00, choice $1.98. Better white dresses at half price.

$7.98

You Wouldn't Pay A Nickel To See A Parade Of Ten Thousand "Tin Lizzies"

Because they would all be alike. Just so with Clearance Sales and special prices. You don't care a "rap" for a July Clearance Sale that would have a thousand mediocre specials. There is too much sameness. For Friday and Saturday we are sticking a few "Band Wagons," "Caliopes," "Elephants" and "Pierce Arrows" with "Sirens" on them into our parade of July Clearance specials and, believe it or not, the shopper that don't respond will be in the class with the fellow who missed the Ringling Circus Parade because he saw the one the Patent Medicine Show gave, and it was a fizzle.

$1.98*A "Band Wagon" Full Of Men's Shirts

WORKS FOR CHILD MUST KEEP WELL

Mothers in a Like Situation Should Read This Letter from Mrs. Enrico

Chicago, Illinois.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a serious trouble. I had tried doctors and all said the same—operation. At first I only felt the pain on my left side, but later I seemed to feel it on both sides. I am a power sewing-machine operator and have a little girl to support. I work in a tailor shop and that kind of work has been very slack this year and I am home part of the time. I do not like to take any chances so I consulted my friends, and one lady said, 'Take Lydia Pinkham's medicine,' so I did. I have felt better right along and am in good enough health to go to work. I recommend your Vegetable Compound and Sensitive Compound to all."—Mrs. MARY ENRICO, 459 N. Carpenter St., Chicago.

Often the mother is obliged to support her children and good health is necessary. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is just the medicine you can depend upon. It is a medicine for women's ailments and the relief it brought Mrs. Enrico it may bring to you.

For Thin Waists and Sleeveless Gowns

(Toilet Tips)
A safe, certain method for ridding the skin of ugly, lumpy growths is as follows: Mix a paste with some powdered talc and water, apply to hairy surface about 2 minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is entirely harmless and seldom requires repeating, but to avoid disappointment, it is advisable to see that you get genuine depilatory. Mix fresh as wanted.—advertisement.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a young girl 16 years old and coming to you for advice. Dolly, I live out of town and it is so lonesome I don't know what to do at times. I have no brothers or sisters and I don't go very many places. I have never got acquainted with very many of the girls or boys here. What girls I do know are not the kind I care to associate with. Now, Dolly, I dress nice and am considered good looking. But I don't seem to be very popular no matter where I go. I have tried to be a nice girl all my life. I would flirt with any fellow. I have a nice home and good parents. But some times I get so blue, I just feel like leaving and never coming back. So please advise me what to do. Dolly, there is a boy passes our house every morning and he acts like he wants to speak, but just hates to, for he always looks in at our house when he passes. Now, Dolly, I would like to get acquainted with him, but don't know how. Do you think he wants to get acquainted with me, or just trying to flirt with me? Tell me how

I can get acquainted with him. Thank you. BROWN EYES.

Unless you have a very attractive home I think it must be you whom he looks for when he passes by. Smile at him sweetly some time, it won't do any harm. But then, he will find a way to meet you unless he is "too awfully" bashful.

Dear Dolly—As I have been sick for some time and not able to do much work would like to know if there is anyone in Portsmouth who has scraps of gingham, calico or silks and serges or even old coats that are not too badly worn. I would be glad to get them to piece into quilts. If anyone has they can call you up and get my name and address. I will pay postage on the pieces. Thanks to any one who sends them.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please give me recipes for plain custard cake and custard pie? Thank you.

KENTUCKY.

Cocunut Layer Cake—1 1/4 cups sugar, 1 3/4 cups sifted flour, 1/2 cup butter, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 5 egg whites, 2 1/2 cups milk. Sift flour, then measure; add baking powder, and sift three times. Cream sugar and butter thoroughly, add flavor, then flour and milk alternately; lastly add the stiffly beaten whites. Bake in two layers, 25 to 30 minutes.

Custard Pie—3 tablespoons sugar, 1-8 teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, 1 1/2 cups milk, few gratings nutmeg. Beat eggs slightly, add sugar, salt and milk. Line plate with paste No. 1 and build up a fluted rim. Strain in mixture, and sprinkle with few gratings of nutmeg. Bake in quick oven at first to set rim, decrease the heat afterwards, as egg and milk in combination need to be cooked at low temperature.

Miss Dolly Wise—Which is the correct word to use, that scales or those scales, meaning one pair of scales? YOURS TRULY.

Those scales.

Dear Miss Wise—I read in a 1921 almanac that the first president of the United States was named Hanson. It said the first president of the first congress of the confederation from Nov. 5, 1781 to Nov. 5, 1782, was named Hanson and his official title was president of the United States. Is this true?

TIME READER.

George Washington was the first president.

Miss Dolly Wise—You seem to give such good advice and tell so many where to get on and off at, please tell me how I can land a widow about 40 or older. Don't say go to church. I go all the time, to places where I think they would go but no luck. Now, Dolly, if you know of any way your advice will be a great help. I have money and can furnish a good home. All they have to do is to drop a line in your column. Hoping to see this in your paper soon. Yours for some ADVICE.

Now, girls, here's your chance. Grab him. No, I don't know of any widow now. But if you send me your name or phone number I will do my best to find you a woman.

Dear Miss Wise—What do you think of people who live here in Portsmouth and are paying rent and work by day's work for their living, then sit on their porch and make fun and laugh at other poor people who pass by because they think they aren't dressed just right. Dolly, I don't believe in making fun of any one and it certainly makes me sore to see some one make fun of some one else because they aren't dressed nice as they are.

BESSIE JANE.

To make fun of people isn't being done this season. It is said that the world gets old and wiser and people are waking up gradually and seeing their own faults as well as others and naturally after this they don't feel like laughing. When you see any one making fun just remember that they are out of date.

WHOM SHALL MOLLY MARRY?

DON MAKES SPECTACULAR RE-ENTRY INTO PLOT

BY ZOE BECKLEY

QUICKLY though she had left Ben Wheeler's office, Molly glimpsed the effect her words had upon him—"Some day someone will use force on you—and then heaven pity you!"

She saw him stiffen and the fighting look come in his eyes, but a look of dismay too.

Along with the brute in the primitive male is a childlike side. It is the frightened child in such a man that appeals to the protective instinct of woman.

Molly knew in the last analysis she could both frighten and soothe Ben Wheeler. And that knowledge supplemented the fascination she felt in the wielder of the club.

In her bewilderment she turned to Billy, the understanding. She would go to his office. But Billy, as if in answer to her need, turned the corner at that very moment, his manner hurried, his face grave.

"Molly! Just whom I wanted!" Before she could answer, Billy hailed a taxi. The address he gave the driver was one of the poorer of Midvale's hotels.

Billy took Molly's hands, holding them firmly.

"Molly—Don Manning has come back. The affair Ben Wheeler brought to a crisis—with Lela Mayrose—just as I was about to open in Pittsburg half mad with sleeplessness and brooding. Made a

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Bigelow M. E. Church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Misses Kate and Ada Vignus of 2302 Vinton avenue, with Group Ten as hostesses. Twenty-six members, two associate members and ten visitors were present.

The devotions were led by Rev. Charles Chandler. The treasurer reported seventeen dollars taken in at the chain parties, and Mrs. J. B. Mackay reported a group meeting at Wheelersburg. A five cent collection was taken to pay the expenses of Miss Justine McClure, superintendent of children's work, who will leave soon for Lancaster, Ohio, to attend the assembly.

Mrs. Milton Monroe of Manly gave a talk on Temperance. The program which was in charge of Miss Ada Vignus, included a playlet written by Miss Kate Vignus, entitled "The Ignorant Mrs. Smith," with the following cast of characters:

The Ignorant Mrs. Smith—Mrs. Geneva Adams Metzler.
Mrs. Marie Jenkins—Miss Kate Louella Ruhlman.
Mrs. Sara Gore—Mrs. William Gray.

Mrs. Anna James—Mrs. Dora Miller.
Soloist—Miss Gladys Selby.

After a delightful social chat, delicious refreshments were served. The visitors were: Mesdames Herbert Boring, Milton Monroe, Hannah Edgington, Carrie Edgington, Albert Thamm, Geneva Metzler and Misses Ruth Fowler, Jessie Ruhlman, Anna Adams, Effie Johnson, Gladys Selby and little Miss Harriet Switaski.

Miss Ruth Thompson entertained informally with two tables at bridge Tuesday evening, honoring her sister, Mrs. Eustace Wheeler, of St. Louis. Mrs. Wheeler and daughter, Carlotta are guests of Mrs. Wheeler's mother, Mrs. A. C. Thompson, having come recently for a brief visit.

James Holden, 1541 Ninth street, leaves today for Cleveland where he will visit his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holden.

Mrs. Orpha Kitchen of 1524 Third street, will entertain Mrs. C. N. Smith's Sunday school class of Trinity Church, this evening.

DR. SNUFFLES! Dr. Snuffles! called Nancy to the kind little fairy gentleman who doctored all the creatures in Outdoor Land. "Here's Mrs. Robin to see you."

"All right, I'll be down in a minute," called the doctor, shuffling, so he hurried.

"Why, Mrs. Robin, how do you do?" he said. "You don't look a bit sick."

"And neither am I," answered Mrs. Robin, snuffling her head. "It's not I, doctor, it's—it's, oh, doctor, I'm so mortified! It's my new babies! They hatched out of their eggs yesterday and instead of being lovely little fluffy darlings, as I had expected, they're as bare as doorknobs. There isn't a feather or a bit of fuzz on them and they look awful! I'm so disappointed!"

Mrs. Robin began to cry.

Well-Known Actress Tells How She Keeps Her Complexion Beautiful

Los Angeles, Cal.—We publish below a letter from that beautiful and well-known actress, Miss Eileen Sedgwick, which tells a story of interest to every girl or woman. Here it is: To Mrs. Edna Wilder, Rochester, N. Y.: I have been using your toilet preparations Derwillo and Liska cold cream and am more than pleased with the results. So much so, that I have discontinued the use of other preparations I have used for years.

(Signed) Eileen Sedgwick.

There is something about Derwillo and Liska cold cream which makes you forget other beautifiers. They give you a complexion in a class by itself. You can leave your powder puff at home when you use Derwillo. Its popularity with actresses should convince you that there is nothing "better," "just as good," or "just like it."

Perspiration does not effect it, and it stays on until you wash it off. Put a liberal supply of Derwillo on your face before an auto trip or a day in the open. When you return cleanse your face with Liska cold cream and your complexion will look and feel as though you had remained at home, absolutely free from sunburn or windburn.

Try them today and you don't like this Derwillo-Liska cold cream combination, take them back and

by Rafael Sabatini

BEGIN HERE TODAY

To escape hanging on the charge of sedition, ANDRE-LOUIS MOREAU flees from his native town of Gavrilac and conceals his identity by joining a band of strolling players in which he makes a great success in the part of SCARAMOUCHE.

His flight has caused him to delay revenge on the great and powerful MARQUIS DE LA TOUR D'AZUR, who tricked Andre-Louis' dearest friend, PHILIPPE DE VILMORIN, into a duel and then killed him because he feared the idealist's "dangerous gift of eloquence."

Over the dead body of his friend, Andre-Louis swore to carry on the work of reforming the lot of the down-trodden peasants.

Scaramouche, as he is now called, falls in love with CLIMENE, daughter of MONSIEUR BINET, the owner of the troupe. They become engaged and Andre-Louis has forgotten ALINE DE KERCADIOU, the friend of his childhood, who horrified him by listening to the suit of the Marquis. While walking with Climene, he unexpectedly meets Aline.

GO ON WITH THE STORY

Early in the morning they were awakened by a din of bells—the tolling of the sections ringing the alarm. To their startled ears came later the rolling of drums, and at one time they heard the sounds of a multitude on the march. Paris was rising.

The two women at the Hotel Plouquet still waited for the return of Rougane, though now with ever-lessening hope. And Rougane did not return. The affair did not appear so simple to the father as to the son. Rougane the elder was rightly afraid to lend himself to such a piece of deception.

Late that night, as M. de Kercadiou sat gloomily in his brother's library, the pipe in which he had sought solace extinguished between his fingers, there came a sharp knocking at the door.

A slim young man in a dark olive smock stood at the threshold. He wore boots, buckskins, and a small sword, and round his waist there was a tri-color sash, in his hat a tri-color cockade.

M. de Kercadiou, startled in such an hour by this sudden apparition, greeted Andre-Louis in terms almost identical with those in which in that same room he had greeted him on a similar occasion once before.

"What do you want here, sir?" "I am a representative. I have certain powers. I am very opportunely returning to Paris. Can I serve you where Rougane cannot? Aline should be placed in safety at once."

M. de Kercadiou surrendered unconditionally. He came over and took Andre-Louis' hand.

"About Aline?" he asked. "And himself answered his own question: 'She must be brought out of Paris at once, before the place becomes a shambles. Young Rougane's plan is good.'"

"But Rougane the elder will not hear of it."

"You mean he will not do it on his own responsibility. But he has consented to do it on mine. I have left him a note over my signature to the effect that a safe-conduct for Mlle. de Kercadiou to go to Paris and return is issued by him in compliance with orders from me."

M. de Kercadiou took the sheet of paper that Andre-Louis held out.

"If you send that to Paris by young Rougane in the morning," said Andre-Louis, "Aline should be here by noon. If there is any other way in which I can serve you, you have but to name it whilst I am here."

"But there is, Andre. Did not Rougane tell you that there were others?"

"He mentioned Mme. de Plougastel and her servant."

"Then why . . . ?" M. de Kercadiou broke off, looking his question. Very solemnly Andre-Louis shook his head.

"That is impossible," he said.

M. de Kercadiou's mouth fell open in astonishment. "Impossible!" he repeated. "But why?"

"Monsieur, I can do what I am doing for Aline without offending my conscience. But Mme. Plougastel is in very different case. Neither Aline nor any of hers have been concerned in counter-revolutionary work. But Mme. Plougastel is the wife of M. le Comte de Plougastel, whom all the world knows to be an agent between the Court and the emigrants."

"You must take the risk."

"I must?" he echoed. "Why must I? Your reasons are mysterious?"

"I violate my words of honor, my oath, if I tell you," M. de Kercadiou turned away, wringing his hands, his condition visibly piteous, then turned again to Andre. "But in this extremity, in this desperate extremity, and since you so ungenerously insist, I shall have to tell you. God help me I have no choice. She will realize that when she knows Andre, my boy . . ." He paused again, a man afraid. He set a hand on his godson's shoulder, and to his increasing amazement Andre-Louis perceived that over those pale, short-sighted eyes there was a film of tears. "Mme. de Plougastel is your mother."

Followed, for a long moment, utter silence. This thing that he was told was not immediately understood. When understanding came at last Andre-Louis' first impulse was to cry out. But he possessed himself, and played the Stoic. He must ever be playing something.

"I see," he said, at last, quite coolly.

His mind was sweeping back over the past. Swiftly he reviewed his memories of Mme. de Plougastel.

"I see," he said again, and added now, "Of course, only but a fool would have guessed it long ago."

He sat down abruptly, to conceal the too-revealing fact that his limbs were shaking. He pulled a handkerchief from his pocket to mop his brow, which had grown damp. And then, quite suddenly, he found himself weeping.

"IF YOU SEND THAT TO PARIS ALINE SHOULD BE HERE BY NOON."

CHAPTER XI

INTO the late afternoon of that endless day of horror with its perpetual alarms, its volleying muskets, rolling drums, and distant muttering of angry multitudes, Mme. de Plougastel and Aline sat waiting in that handsome house in the Rue du Paradis. It was no longer for Rougane they waited. They waited for whatever might betide.

Suddenly Madame's young footman, Jacques, the most trusted of her servants, burst into their presence unceremoniously with a scared face, bringing the announcement that a man who had just climbed over the garden wall professed himself a friend of Madame's, and desired to be brought immediately to her presence.

"Bring him in," she commanded breathlessly.

Jacques went out, to return presently accompanied by a tall man in a long, shabby overcoat and a wide-brimmed hat that was turned down all round, and adorned by an enormous tri-color cockade. This hat he been preserved. That is why none was ever allowed to know. Your mother came betimes into Brittany, and under an assumed name spent some months in the village of Morcau. It was while she was there that you were born."

"Then, who was my father?"

"I don't know. She never told me. It was her secret, and I did not pry. It is not in my nature, Andre."

"And now, what will you do, Andre?" he asked. "Now that you know?"

"What difference should the knowledge make? In filial pity to be called into existence by the mere announcement of relationship?"

"The decision is with you, Andre."

"Nay, it is beyond me. Decide it who can, I cannot."

"You mean that you refuse even now?"

"I mean that—I consent. Since I cannot decide what it is that I should do, it only remains for me to do what a son should. It is grotesque."

removed as he entered.

The young footman wondered what it was in the man's face, which was turned from him, that should cause his mistress to cry out and recoil. Then he found himself dismissed abruptly by a gesture.

The newcomer advanced to the middle of the salon, moving like a man exhausted and breathing hard. There he leaned against a table, across which he confronted Mme. de Plougastel. And she stood regarding him, a strange horror in her eyes.

Steals Occupied Base In World Series

WHEN a player steals a base with somebody occupying that particular bag, he is said to have pulled a "John Anderson."

The reason, of course, is that John Anderson is officially credited with being the first player to steal a base with the bag occupied.

Baseball historians have it that Anderson pulled such a "bone," for the first time, back on June 14, 1896, against Baltimore in the National League.

Anderson's stunt was pulled 25 years ago, but ball players have been doing the same thing ever since in the majors and minors. Hardly a year passes in the majors but what someone pulls a "John Anderson."

Back in the 1917 world series between Chicago and New York, Pitcher "Red" Faber pulled the trick. It was the first time anyone ever worked a "John Anderson" in the big series.

Faber, who rarely tries to steal a base, for some reason elected to steal third. Noticing the pitcher winding up he got a good lead and slid safely into third. Unfortunately, another Chicago player was occupying the base, and Red, much to his surprise and embarrassment, was tagged out.

Since Faber pitched and won three games against the Giants in that series, his "bone" on the bases didn't get much publicity. However, it stands out as the only time a player ever elected to steal a base in a world series with someone occupying the base.

An unusual minor league incident of a like nature was once successfully staged. McKee, of the San Francisco club, stole third with the bases filled and actually got away with it.

How come? Well, it so happened that the umpire ruled a balk on the pitcher, which entitled all baserunners to advance. It saved McKee from heading the list of ivory nutters.

12 N. &amp; W. Cars Derailed At Lucasville

Traffic on the local division of the N. & W. was delayed several hours Thursday morning when time freight 65 westbound derailed twelve cars about 1 o'clock in Lucasville. Several of the cars were smashed to pieces and the track was torn up for some distance. Officials of the N. & W. are busy making an effort to determine the cause of the wreck, the scene of which is near the N. & W. depot in Lucasville.

The wrecking crew was called to the scene and cleared up the wreckage. A large crowd gathered at the scene early this morning to watch the crews, who worked valiantly. It was reported that a hobo, riding on the train, was killed, but it was unfounded. The noise and concussion caused by the coming together and piling up of the cars awakened many of the residents of the village whose first thought was that one of the general stores had been visited by robbers who were blowing a safe. After many had ventured to the streets to locate the cause of the noise it was found that a train had been wrecked.

In the south end of the village about three squares below the N. & W. depot there. The majority of the cars went into a ditch at the side of the tracks while others stopped some distance from the track. One car, which started down an alley was fifty feet from the track. Another car stopped in the truck garden in front of the Mary Colegrove home. The car would have struck the house had it traveled fifteen feet farther. One track was cleared and put in shape this morning. Work of removing the wreckage is slow as the cars were loaded. One car contained brick, another coal, one charcoal and the other nine general merchandise. The last traces of the wreck will be cleared up before sometime tomorrow.

POMERENE URGES PUBLIC TO STAND BY HARDING IN BIG STRIKE CRISIS

SANDUSKY, O., July 13.—United States Senator Pomerene here today, said the public should have confidence in President Harding in dealing with industrial conditions now troubling the nation. "The solution of the regrettable industrial strife should be left for the time being in the hands of President Harding," declared the Ohio senator. "I do not consider it opportune for Congress or other agencies to intervene. Our greatest necessity is that of maintaining law and order. This country is not ready for anarchy or anything like that."

Speaking before the Ohio Electric Light Association convention at Cedar Point, Senator Pomerene handled international questions without reserve as well as emphasizing his conviction that order must be brought out of the prevailing industrial unrest without any sacrifice of constitutional rights. He believed, he said, that a man has the right to work unless acting contrary to established law. "It is the duty of all authorities, under any and all circumstances to preserve order; be that official ever so humble or ever so high. If he does not move in preserving law then he should be instantly removed. Order we must have in the United States if we would be preserved as a nation. Speaking on international questions, Senator Pomerene said: "I am a good deal of a party man but I do not believe in making a party question out of our foreign relations. As long as I am in public life I will never pursue any other course. I voted for the Four Power pact and I think I did my duty in voting for that, drawing closer to other governments."

Piketon Fair Opens August 2

Special to the Times.
PIKETON, July 13.—The sixteenth annual Pike County Fair which will be held at Piketon Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 2, 3, 4, promises to be the largest and best fair held by the Pike County Agricultural Association in the sixteen years of its existence. Several car loads of material which will be used in the construction of a new Art Exhibit Building, 40 feet by 80 feet, were unloaded at the Fair Grounds Tuesday and the work of constructing the building will be started at once. Several public spirited citizens have volunteered their services to help in the construction of the building and it is hoped that the building will be completed by the first day of the fair. On account of the amount of space occupied by the splendid Grange exhibits last year the old Art Building was found to be inadequate and the Association decided to put up the new building which with the old one will afford ample space for all exhibits. The different granges of the county are working hard on their exhibits and a magnificent cash prize will be offered this year to the Grange having the best display. A feature of the fair this year will be the exhibition of fifty head of registered Poland China pigs by the different Boys and Girls Pig Clubs of the County. The one showing the finest specimen will be given a free trip to Columbus Club Week. There will also be exhibits by the Poultry, Clothing and Canning Clubs. County Farm Agent R. J. Barker will have charge of all Club work. The usual merry-go-round, Ferris Wheel and Plantation shows will be on the grounds for the entertainment of the crowds and there will be three good races each day for those who enjoy the sport of kings. Secretary S. S. Daily is sparing no effort in making this the best fair ever held in Pike county.

Times Delivers Papers By Truck

The accident which left the city without electric power yesterday for nearly an hour, when the wind blew down wires at Clay and Eleventh streets, struck the Times at a most inopportune time. When the power stopped it was about three quarters of an hour before the time for departure of the B. and O. train. While the Times force stood around helpless, the B. and O. pulled out, which meant that more than a thousand subscribers along that line would miss their evening paper. In this emergency someone suggested taking the papers as far as Jackson by truck. The idea was quickly adopted, and two Times men were on their way with papers for Slocum, Gephart, South Webster, Scioto Furnace, Hale Creek, Blackfork, Oak Hill and Jackson, a short time after the power "came back." The bundles for Wellston and Hamden were taken along also on the chance that opportunity might develop to relay them. The truck pulled into Jackson a little after five o'clock despite the rain and a deluge. At that point the papers for Wellston were relayed by Taxi, but no way was found to get the Hamden papers out, so they had to lay over at Jackson until this morning.

On the way back the bundles for Slocum and Gephart which had not been left owing to a deluge, were taken over a mighty rough temporary road, a distance of about five miles, but the last bundle was delivered. The experience was a most annoying one for all concerned but The Times had the satisfaction of knowing it had reached virtually all of its subscribers not more than an hour late.

Maritime Powers To Be Invited For Conference In U. S.

Congress recently passed a resolution requesting the executive to extend a call for such a conference and the president is understood to have expressed approval of the plan.

YOUTHFUL PITCHER FANS BABE RUTH THREE TIMES, ONCE WITH SACKS LOADED; REDS WIN AGAIN

Donohue Turns In Another Winner For Moran's Club

NEW YORK, July 13.—Knocking Waite Hoyt out of the box, the St. Louis Browns evened the "rival series" with the Yankees by taking the second game 7-4, and today held a lead of a game and a half over their rivals. Hub Prueitt, sensational young southpaw, struck out Babe Ruth three times, once with the bases full, and Ken Williams hammered out his 21st homer.

The Giants increased their lead to four and a half games as a result of driving Alexander to cover and downing the Cubs for the second time, 5-1, while Philadelphia upset St. Louis in both ends of a double-header, checking the Cardinals' winning streak of eight straight. Roger Thursday, July 13.—Excelsior vs. N. & W.

Friday, July 14.—N. & W. vs. Central Labor.

Owing to the rain of Wednesday afternoon the Industrial League grounds were too soggy to permit the game between the Central Labor and Cuban Last teams, tied for first place in the league race. Last evening's battle promised to be a tug-of-war, with Olin Lewis and "Doc" Doughman opposing each other on the mound. A large crowd had gathered in the hope that the two teams would clash, but play was impossible unless the players wore gum boots and wore were handy.

The game will be played on next Tuesday evening, when the banner crowd of the season will probably be out.

THE MOUNTAIN MOLE HILL

THE rebellion against the Irish free state has been put down and once again is another crisis safely by. There seems to have been vast importance attached to and a terrible noise made over a disgustingly puny affair. Dublin was reported red with carnage, but when the white flag is run and the mighty army of the insurgents is counted it is found to number just thirty-five living souls, with casualties sunken in the present estimate to almost as many.

But if the disturbance were undignified as to its personal consequence, it was still deeply harmful in the wide mischief it wrought to the conception of the ability of the Irish to govern themselves. With their vivid memories of centuries of barbarous atrocities and enduring wrong practiced upon them by England it is not in human nature to expect that all Irishmen would accept in entire peace any agreement with her short of absolute independence. But not now can she possibly gain that. Struggling blindly she may lose the real substance, which she has at last won. It would seem the part of wisdom for her to endure the mere shadow, to gain strength in subsequence of oppression and wait in calmness for the coming of the full day that will dawn all the sooner because she has borne herself quietly and discreetly.

FICTION OR FACT?

STARTLING, yes, shocking accusations of barbarity practiced upon the inmates of the state institution for boys, at Lancaster, are contained in a report filed by investigators from the bureau of efficiency.

The details of the cruelties tax credulity, it being alleged that youths were shackled in chains and compelled to stand for hours in solitary confinement, that one inmate was held, at an outdoor cistern, in freezing weather, and icy cold water ran down his back, while it was quite common to punish for infractions of rules by making the recalcitrants walk barefoot over a floor liberally sprinkled with tacks.

Indeed, it is hard to believe such charges, but unfortunately a common experience convinces they are not impossible of perpetration. It is the unfortunate case that the inmates of these institutions are recruited from the rudest and roughest portion of the juvenile population. They are a tough lot to deal with. Their ingenious devilry is amazing and their powers of aggravation illimitable. It is also unfortunate that attendants and caretakers are all too frequently provoked to punishment that is atrocious and barbarous.

There may be nothing of the sort at hand, in the present instance—we are rather inclined to think there is not, but rather some picturesque lying being done—still now that a scandal has been started the state owes it both to itself and management of the institution to go to the bottom and establish what is the real situation in the institution.

RIGHT FACT, WRONG THEORY

NONCHALANTLY a scientist proceeds to settle a wide dispute as to whether or not females of the human species are running to the runt type by laying down the dictum that they are.

He would be as right as scientists ever are, if he only stopped there, but he must explain the why thereof, wherefore he goes wrong from that point as his cult usually does.

For his reason is that runt—a most unalluring term and unpardonable in anyone, except him who speaks on a purely scientific basis—is an undevelopment of the people of the smaller stature, Europeans, who are becoming numerically prominent.

Utter nonsense. There are not a half hundred towns in the United States where a foreign element is more distinctly dominant than it was twenty years ago. Yet go into any town of a few thousand, watch the throngs as they pass by on the streets and the pre-eminent feature will be girls, anywhere from fifteen to twenty-five who are undersized. Inquire into their pedigrees and the overwhelming majority of them will be found to be distinctively American, not only by mere birth, but by ancestry two or more generations back.

Yes, women are declining in stature and the cause isn't far to seek. It lies in the habits of their childhood. Children, especially girls, live a more unwholesome life. Their appetites are cloyed with constant portions of sweets and dopes of all sorts and they do not eat of real foods sufficient to nourish them into vigor and robustness. Children from fourteen and on up are running to the dance halls or other recreations and staying out late of nights, losing sleep that would be best for them. Girls suffer more from this than boys because, to begin with, they haven't as hardy constitutions and they take no exercise as a sort of stay against excesses.

One of the saddest sights is to pass along a dance hall about twelve o'clock at night and see the swarm of little girls, ninety percent of them without even a dubious escort, leaving the dance hall. Fathers and mothers, do you sleep sound at that hour?

It will go down in history as the Harding drought.

We notice where a waterways association has resumed Alan Jordan's canal, the old Erie bed, from the extending paws of a railway octopus. It must be so because the association tells us so itself.

More paving in the offing. The Peerless is bound to maintain her place as the best and most completely paved city on the planet. Truth to say there is none to compare with her now, except that place which is said to be paved with good intentions.

Watchful waiting in regard to Mexico hasn't passed away; instead it has been re-enforced by unmasterful inactivity at Washington.

Well, did you ever? There is a gentle hint at Washington that if the operators and miners persist in doing nothing the administration is going to do something. What, isn't it, indeed, but no doubt it will be just perfectly dreadful more following in Wilsonian "footsteps" doubtless.

The newest aspirant for the postoffice never hurt a patient half as bad in pulling a tooth as he did some fellows in throwing his hat in the ring.

WILLIAMS' RECORD APPROVED BY OHIO FEDERATION OF LABOR

COLUMBUS, OHIO, JULY 13.—Headquarters of Daniel W. Williams, Republican gubernatorial candidate, today announced receipt of a letter from Thomas J. Donnelly, secretary of the Ohio Federation of Labor, giving the labor body's approval of his record. Williams says his advocacy of good roads, especially in the rural sections, away from the main market roads, is meeting with much enthusiasm.

Headquarters of Simeon D. Fess, Republican candidate for Senator, announced that women will participate in the big Republican rally at Mansfield Saturday. Miss Florence E. Allen, Cuyahoga county Common Pleas Judge and candidate for the supreme bench, is to speak. Other women speakers will be Miss Rose Morarity of the State Industrial Commission, and Mrs. John McKee of Springfield, chairman of the women's division of the Fess committee.

THE BIBLE IN PICTURES AND TEXT

By HELEN E. OHRENSCHALL

SAMSON PERSUADED

THE Philistines could not guess the riddle. They went to Samson's wife and said they would burn her and her father's house if she would not help them. She persuaded Samson to tell her, then told the Philistines.

They pretended to have guessed the riddle and said: What is sweeter than honey, and what is stronger than a lion?

The Lord was with Samson and he knew his wife had told them. He slew thirty men and gave their garments to those who had expounded the riddle. Samson returned to his home and his wife stayed with her father in Timnath.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, July 13.—Hell's Kitchen has said farewell to Duck Kee. The wily little Chinese has closed his chop suey place and sailed for home. His two daughters, prize pupils in public schools, married Americans and settled down to a life of farming in Jersey.

Duck Kee drifted to Chinatown 27 years ago. He was an active leader in a couple of tong wars and wore a knife strapped to his arm. Chinese fashion. One night he drifted into a bawdy mission and was converted.

Several days later he disposed of his worldly goods for cash, turned it over to the mission and said he was leaving Chinatown for good. He wandered into the Hell's Kitchen section uptown and began life anew.

Long before prohibition he refused to sell intoxicating drinks in his little cafe. Even women were asked politely not to smoke cigarettes. He served the best Chinese food in town and a path was beaten to his door by people from all stations of life.

Richard Croker used to go there, and so did great steamship and society folk as well as the submerged tenth of the famous district. Five years ago Duck Kee quit going to church. The call of ancestry was too strong and he returned to his earlier form of worship.

He wrote a brochure on "Courage" which he privately circulated. And he proved his courage time after time. Once a drink crazed longshoreman, angered at Kee's refusal to serve drinks, started after him with a gun.

Duck Kee, weighing only 90 pounds, fastened his teeth into the hand that held the gun, and when the police came he was sitting on the longshoreman's chest fanning him. "He velly warm," he explained.

Rivington Street's summer evening push-cart army offers odd menus, priced in pennies. For five cents one may get a plate of bean soup, a hot dog sandwich, a chunk of green pickled watermelon, an ear of roasted corn or a glass of lemonade.

The piece de resistance, however, is a two-cent loaf of Odessa kvas, a popular bread in the section. At 10 o'clock the push-cart army moves on and the barrel organs arrive to grind out the tunes for dances in the middle of the street. The dancing is not confined to the children. Mothers and fathers join the merry-making and sometimes the old patriarchs lay down their pipes and shuffle rheumatic limbs.

Two of New York's most exclusive hotels on the East Side have removed all chairs from their foyers.

It is the first step in a war on the lobby hounds who gather there around luncheon and dinner time.

It also tells the adventures who accidentally drops her handkerchief or hand-bag at the opportune moment.

One of the downtown hotels a woman with a variegated parrot strolling majestically at her side, stroled through the lobby. A house detective approached her with: "Madam, this is not a zoological garden."

An ambulance backed up to the stage entrance of a Forty-second street theater the other afternoon. A stage director had been suddenly stricken, but strong restoratives revived him. It appears that a member of the chorus asked to be excused from rehearsal to go to Red Bank to help her mother can blackberries.
